

REMARKS

Interview Summary

Applicant's Representative, Mark Niemann, wishes to thank Examiner Rutledge 5 for the telephone interview conducted May 5th, 2008.

During the interview, Applicant's Representative and the Examiner discussed the Wang and Santos references. Applicant proposed clarifying the claims by replacing the term "editing controls" with "data entry fields". Support for this amendment can be found throughout Applicant's specification, including page 12, lines 2-3, which states

Each section in the exemplary electronic form 222 can include one or more data entry fields for received input from the editing user 208, such as data entry field 224. The data entry fields are also referred to herein as "editing controls."
15 Different graphical components can be used to implement the editing controls, including text boxes, drop-down list boxes, lists boxes, option buttons (also referred to as radio buttons), check boxes, and so on.

Accordingly, in order to advance prosecution, Applicant has amended the claims by replacing the term editing controls with data entry fields. Wang and Santos do not teach 20 or in any way suggest "data entry fields", as recited in claims 1-26.

Applicant's Representative understood the Examiner to consider the claims as amended allowable over the art of record even though no agreement was specifically reached. However, the Examiner indicated that the allowance of the claims is subject to an additional search.

25 Applicant respectfully requests a phone call if Examiner Rutledge thinks there are any further issues that might delay issuance. Applicant greatly appreciates examiner Rutledge's willingness to assist Applicant in advancing prosecution.

Conclusion

All of the claims are in condition for allowance. Accordingly, Applicant requests that the Office issue a Notice of Allowability. If the Office's next anticipated action is to be anything other than issuance of a Notice of Allowability, Applicant respectfully 5 requests a telephone call for the purpose of scheduling an interview.

Respectfully Submitted,

Dated: June 25, 2008
